

presents

A 'Meeting of Minds'

In celebration of the International Day of Peace 2020 Gender Agenda International will host a series of 4 online 'Meeting of Minds' sessions to explore what Peace looks like and what role women and girls can play in preventing violence from 4 different perspectives:

Ellie Bird-Lenawarungu, MBA; BA; FRSA

Jane Townsley, MSc.; BSc.; Dip. Env.

Leah Mofomme, DPhil; MPA; BA (SS);

Session 1 – Women in Communities;

Session 2 – Young People;

Session 3 – Women in Uniformed Services;

Session 4 – Role of Academia;

Each session will last one hour and after hearing from our speaker, a wider discussion will take place with audience participation.

Session 1 –
Tuesday 15th
September, 10 am (UK);
11 am (Pretoria, SA);
7pm (Melbourne, AUS)

Mary Mlambo, Lungelo
Youth Development,
Richards Bay, Kwa Zulu
Natal, South Africa

Session 2 –
Thursday 17th
September, 10 am (UK);
noon (Kenya); 7pm
(Melbourne, AUS)

Vio Nyagol – Girls'
Mentorship Lead,
Amuka Foundation,
Kibera, Kenya

Session 3 –
Monday 21st
September, 10 am (UK);
4 pm (Indonesia); 7pm
(Melbourne, AUS)

Senior Superintendent
Yuli Cahyanti,
Indonesian National
Police & Former UN
Peacekeeper

Session 4 –
Wednesday 23rd
September, 10 am (UK);
7pm (Melbourne, AUS)

Dr. Melissa Jardine,
Regional Research Lead
on Law Enforcement in ASEAN at UNWomen/
UNODC; Board
Member, Global Law
Enforcement & Public
Health Association

To register, please email Jane Townsley - jane@forceinternational.co.uk